

- Instructions: (1) There are five questions in this question paper. All questions are compulsory.
 (2) Figures to the right indicate full marks.
 (3) Write in legible handwriting.

Q. 1. Answer the following questions in approximately 200 – 250 words.

24

(Any three out of five)

- (1) What are the criteria of analyzing a text - book? Discuss this keeping in mind the present text books.

Justify the statement, 'Nana has made his adjustment with Nani.'

"Arise, Awake and stop not till the ^{goal} God is reached." Explain this famous quote of Swami Vivekanand in the lights of Anurima's enthusiasm for reaching her goal.

Define and discuss the merits and demerits of the inductive method and deductive method of teaching Grammar.

(5) Discuss the use of 'Computer Assisted Language Learning' in teaching English at higher secondary level.

Q. 2. Answer the following questions in approximately 150 – 200 words.

24

(Any five out of six)

- (1) Describe the powers of Supernatural elements in the story 'Monkey's Paw.'

(2) Write down the merits and demerits of using 'Authentic Materials' in 'ESL' class.

(3) Why is water called the 'Elixir of life'? What are the advantages of harnessing of water, afforestation and dams?

(4) Differentiate the 'Traditional classroom and Constructive classroom teaching.

(5) What, according to J. Krishnamurti, is the function of Education?

(6) What is Grammar Translation Method? Write its merits and demerits in brief.

Q. 3. Answer the following questions in approximately 100-150 words.

20

(Any five out of seven)

- (1) Mention the advantages of 'Eclectic method'.

(2) What is the significance of the title of the poem 'Shaper Shaped'?

(3) 'Autofab will be a boon to environment'. Give your arguments for the statement.

(4) Describe, in your words, the central idea of the poem 'I heaven of Freedom'.

(5) As a teacher of English, what techniques would you use to enhance / to develop the speaking skill of your students? (At least six to eight)

(6) What are blue-prints? Write at least three to four advantages of it.

(7) What are the six R's? How do they help in restoring Global Environment back on its original track? Reduce, Restore, Recycle

- (1) What does the referencing skill mostly consist of?
- (2) Why did Alibhai go from village to village and town to town in the Himalayan Mountains?
- (3) What is 'Active Vocabulary'?
- (4) What did Walt do with his money?
- (5) What are the three types of teacher made tests?
- (6) How can grudge and resentment obstruct love in real life?
- (7) State any two steps of unit lesson planning.
- (8) How does the copy paste system in 'SPARSH' differ from that of our current system?
- (9) What two or three remedies would you suggest to improve pronunciations in English?
- (10) What is the 'mind'? How does it help you?

Q. 5. Do as directed.

12

(A) Match 'A' with 'B'

A

B

- | | |
|------------------------|-----------------------------------|
| (1) South African Ants | (a) Love to eat honey like liquid |
| (2) Cow Ants | (b) Umbrella ants |
| (3) African Ants | (c) Driver Ants |

(B) Say whether the following statements are true or false

- (4) The full form of 'EFLU' is English First Language University. ✓
- (5) Writing and speaking are considered as productive skills. ✗
- (6) Lajja Goswami has won many medals in Archery. ✗
- (7) NY had passed an emancipation Act in 1827. ✓
- (8) The poem 'Blind Deaf Fish' is written by Anand Acharya. ✓

C. Fill in the Blanks

- (9) Acquisition of knowledge, in Bloom's Taxonomy' is the lowest level in the _____ (Application Domain, affective domain, cognitive domain)
10. _____ helps the teacher to be more organized.
(Understanding text, Group and pair work, Lesson planning)
11. According to J. Krishnamurti, 'To be intelligent means _____.'
(to get good score in exam, to have more IQ, to have deep insight to solve any problem)
12. Machines warn us against _____.
(their slavery, their overuse, their sensitivity)

